

slow, kind of boat used, how the vessel is used, (pleasure, ferry, commercial, manufacture or commercial).

Documented vessels those having Coast Guard certificate of inspection are not required to apply for a registration number.

The code initials HA and a number will be assigned to all vessels in Hancock County. The registration number issued is required to be displayed on each side of the bow of the vessel in block letters at least three inches high.

Owners of more than one boat will pay only a $1 fee to register all vessels, but must pay the sheriff a 25 cents fee on each.

The new registration law requires boat owners to file a report with the sheriff in case of any boating accident involving personal injury or property damage.

Further information may be obtained at the sheriff's office.

GEORGETTE B. HALL

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Meyers of New Orleans were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Fanci and Mr. and Mrs. Baker Turner at their home on Beach Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. Turner and young son leave this Friday for Atlanta, Georgia, where they will be affiliated with the Methodist Home for Children. The Turners will have a residence and will be in charge of 14 young boys. Their many friends on the Coast wish them success and happiness in this new venture. Mr. Baker plans to attend Emory University in Atlanta where he will be working on his doctorate.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacCulloch during the Fourth of July weekend were Mrs. John Clesi and young son Gerald and Miss Nina Clesi and Mr. Bob Crochet.

Mrs. George Fanning of Favre Lane had an enjoyable Fourth of July with several guests coming from New Orleans. Visiting her were Mrs. John Boes and son, Mr. Richard Boes, Misses Rose and Irma Bernius, Mrs. Louise McDaniel, Mrs. E. Hefton, Mrs. Annie Burle and daughter, Mrs. L. Kings mill.

Sympathy is extended through this column to relatives and friends of Mr. T. H. Quinlan who died in the Gulfport Veterans Hospital Friday. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery in New Orleans. His sons from California and San Antonio, Texas, and a daughter from Bunkie, La., attended the funeral. Mr. Quinlan was Mrs. George Fanning's brother-in-law.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Piazza on the birth of their brand new daughter, Shirley Julia, born Saturday at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. The new miss is the fifth youngster for this young couple. Mrs. Piazza is the former Miss Shirley Turcotte of Waveland.

About 25 or more veterans from Gulfport will be entertained on July 26 at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Rousseaux on Jeff Davis Avenue. The ladies of the Waveland Methodist Church will be in charge of the afternoon's activities.

Good news—Mr. Adam Russell who has been hospitalized for a sudden attack of kidney stones is reported improved. Mr. Lloyd Bourgeois is home again after being hospitalized. He was confined to the hospital for what appeared to be a near heart attack, but luckily tests proved negative. Best wishes for speedy recoveries are sent to both gentlemen.

Mrs. Louise Van Buskirk is home again after spending last week in Nashville, Tenn., where she attended a meeting of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bubba" White and young daughter, Karen, are spending a week's vacation in Anahuac, Texas, where they are the guests of Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Manny Hubbard have returned to their Waveland home after a fabulous vacation that took them through the Southwest to California. They journeyed through Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Arizona taking in all the wonders at the Grand Canyon, the Mojave Desert and Yosemite. The Hubbards' daughter, Ann, and her husband, Dr. Donald Levy, left Monday for Rochester, Minn., and the Mayo Clinic. Dr. Levy has been awarded a fellowship in plastic surgery at the famous Mayo institute.

Petty Officer third class, U. S. N. Allan Noonan is spending his 30-day leave with his mother, Mrs. Gladys Noonan. He is stationed at San Diego, Calif.

The Charles Johnsons and children, Charles and Kathy, are also at home once again after a wonderful trip to California and other points of interest.

The Paul Kimbrells and children, Paula and Billy, are settled at home, too, after a trip which took them to Mexico, Las Vegas, Nevada and interesting places in Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bordages of Waveland Avenue have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrio and daughters, of Baton Rouge.

Congratulations to Waveland's beauties, Christine Torgerson, who made such a lovely princess in last week's Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo held in Gulfport. . . and to Geraldine Bourgeois, one of last week's contestants in the Miss Bay St. Louis contest. The title went to Miss Carol Johnson of Bay St. Louis, but Geraldine looked lovely, proved her musical talent with her piano selection, and was a real credit to Waveland.

Mr. George Stelz spent the holiday weekend with his family in their attractive home on Jeff Davis Avenue.

STILL TIME TO PLANT GRAZING, FEED CROPS

There is still time to plant grazing and feed crops. Sudan and millet can be planted through the first two weeks of July provided moisture is available. Millet is preferred over Sudan for this late planting. Grain sorghum can be planted for grain until the first week in July, provided irrigation facilities are available. Grain sorghum can be planted for grazing only through July if moisture is present. Some dairymen often plant corn at this time of year, cut it and let it dry in the shock for use as winter feed. Small growing varieties of sorghum can be planted for hay, and a bushel and a half of seed per acre is a good seeding rate.

Loading date will be Wednesday, July 27, at Poplarville Railroad Station.

CONGRESSIONAL SIDELIGHTS
 CONGRESSMAN W. M. COLEMAN
 RECESS
 Instead of pushing ahead and finishing all necessary business by July 8th in time for the Democratic National Convention, the leadership of Congress has chosen to recess from July 2 to August 8 in the Senate and to August 15 in the House. This is obviously politically inspired. The Congress could have passed all essential legislation before the Convention. But this would have deprived the politicians of a post-convention sounding board. It will make legislating for the good of the country rather than for political advantage even more difficult than has been the case during this whole political year. We may expect further assaults on the public treasury in an effort to curry favor out of the various pressure groups. In fact, if anything constructive comes out of the post-convention session, it will be surprising.

Trees Planted By Pulp And Paper Industry Totaled 34,130,000 In 1959-60
 Atlanta, Ga., July 1.—Trees planted and distributed by the pulp and paper industry in Mississippi totaled 34,130,000 in 1959-60, according to a survey by the Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association.

Senator James O. Eastland Awarded Gold Medal Of Merit
 Washington, D. C.—Senator James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) has been awarded the Gold Medal of Merit and citation of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States—the highest honor that organization can bestow. VFW National Commander, Louis G. Feldmann, told Senator Eastland the medal was presented "in recognition of your patriotism and devotion to the cause of freedom and the preservation of our liberties as evidenced by your sponsorship of legislation originated by the Veterans of Foreign Wars that has established May 1 annually as Loyalty Day."

TICKETS FOR 1960 MISS MISSISSIPPI PAGEANT ON SALE
 Tickets for the 1960 Miss Mississippi pageant are now on sale, according to Jack Ramsey, general director for the Vicksburg Jaycees. "This year," Ramsey said, "special reserve tickets covering admission charges for all four nights of the pageant will be available for $7.00 and a general reserve ticket for the four nights, $6.00." These all-inclusive tickets are the only ones being sold at this time, Ramsey continued. "Tickets for individual shows will be made available at a later date as seating arrangements permit."

How to add years to your life
 100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years. Today—about 70. Modern sanitation, diet, drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic check-ups by your physician. As pharmacists are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes—drugs unknown a century ago. We're so conscious of the effectiveness of modern medicine that we're shooting for a life span of 100 years. How about you?

"DO YOU HAPPEN TO KNOW THIS MAN?"

"A young man lived with his parents in a public housing development. He attended public school, rode the free school bus, and participated in the free lunch program. He entered the Army, then upon discharge retained his national service insurance. He then enrolled in the State University, working part time in the State Capitol to supplement his GI education check.

"Upon graduation, he married a public health nurse and bought a farm with an FHA loan and then obtained an RFC loan to go into business. A baby was born in the county hospital. He bought a ranch with the aid of the veterans' land program and obtained emergency feed from the Government.

"Later he put part of his land in the soil bank and the payments soon paid out his farm and ranch. His father and mother lived very comfortably on the ranch on their social security and old-age assistance checks. REA lines supplied electricity. The Government helped clear his land. The county agent showed him how to terrace it; then the government built him a fishpond and stocked it with many fish. The Government guaranteed him a sale for his farm products at highest prices.

"Books from the public library were delivered to his door. He banked money with a Government agency insured. His children grew up, entered public schools, ate free lunches, rode free school buses, played in public parks, swam in public pools, and joined the FFA. The man owned an automobile so he favored the Federal highway program.

"He signed a petition seeking Federal assistance in developing an industrial project to help the economy of his area. He was a leader in obtaining the new post office and Federal building, and went to Washington with a group to ask the Government to build a great dam costing millions so that the area could get 'cheap electricity.'

"He petitioned the Government to give the local air base to the county. He was also a leader in the movement to get his specific type of farming special tax write-offs and exemptions. Of course, he belonged to several farmers' organizations, but denied that they were pressure groups.

"Then, one day, he wrote his Congressman: 'I wish to protest these excessive governmental expenditure and attendant high taxes. I believe in rugged individualism. I think people should stand on their own two feet without expecting handouts. I am opposed to all socialistic trends and I demand a return to the principles of our Constitution and the policies of States' rights.'

Total value of all milk produced on Mississippi farms last year was $97,513,000 according to recent estimates. This represents total production of some 1,404,000,000 pounds of milk. The payroll of dairy plants in the state is estimated at $8,300,000. These are just two of many totals it would take to show the full dairy picture of the Magnolia State. Dairy farming is a big single farm-related industry.

Throughout the South this industry's planting accounted for 41,000,000 seedlings during 1959-60, an increase of more than 27,000,000 over last year. More than 58 percent of these trees, or 239,693,000, were produced in 19 industry-operated nurseries.

At the rate of one acre planted per 800 trees, it is estimated that 500,000 acres were planted in the South from trees grown in nurseries. In addition, the new technique of direct seeding resulted in 3,623 acres planted by pulp and paper companies and suppliers, the survey revealed.

Companies reporting their reforestation program in Mississippi were Bowaters Southern Paper Corp.; Calhoun, Tenn.; Crown Zellerbach Corp., Bogalusa Division, Bogalusa, La.; Flintkote Co., Meridian, International Paper Co., Moss Point and Natchez; Johns-Manville Products Corp., Natchez; Marathon Southern Corp., Natchez, Ala.; Masonite Corp., Laurel; St. Regis Paper Co., Pensacola, Fla.; Scott Paper Co., Southern Div., Mobile, Ala.; Tennessee River Pulp & Paper Co., Counce, Tenn.; and Weyerhaeuser Co., Miss.-Ala. Operation Columbus.

One pulpwood supplier, M. O. Stark of Lexington, accounted for 3,000 of the total industry trees in Mississippi.

The pulp and paper industry program accounted for the following number of trees being planted in each of the states during the 1959-60 season:

CHEVY'S CORVAIR KEEPS YOU COOL, MAN... COOL!

Here's another of Corvair's exclusive advantages—and you sure won't want to be without it these warm summer days. We're speaking of the friendly way Corvair keeps you cool and comfortable, with only fresh outside air coming your way. No front-engine or under-car exhaust heat bothers you in a Corvair. And this is only one of the wonderful advantages Corvair's rear-engine design has in store for you. You'll like that practically flat floor, the dig-in-and-go traction, the nimble handling, too. Corvair sound like a real treat to you? Well, one drive at your dealer's will back up every word we say.

ANCHOR for a wandering son

Does that boy of yours think the grass looks greener in other states? Do the colleges seem more exciting in the North and East? Are the jobs more tempting in the Midwest or West?

Ambitious young citizens are the greatest asset of our state, and we can keep them here with jobs—good jobs, with opportunities for advancement.

That's one of the reasons our company works so diligently to bring more and more new industry into the Gulf South—to create jobs and payrolls for our young men and women. For more than 20 years we have advertised the advantages of this area to industrialists all over the country. We believe we're helping to provide good jobs for our citizens of the future.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES by MARCIA P. HUGHES Home Demonstration Agent

For color, flavor and interest in some of your summer meals, why not try Cheese-slices? All you do is insert a pretzel stick into the center of a cube of cheddar cheese and serve like a popsicle. The pretzel serves as the "handle" and lends a crunch, salt contrast to the cheese, too.

LET THE CHILDREN HELP

Are the children helping with home tasks during the summer vacation? If yes, you are giving them training that will pay big dividends when they have homes of their own.

Research studies show that children who learn good work habits and share responsibilities as children generally make higher incomes as adults than do those who don't share home work.

Studies and surveys show that adults have greater feelings of satisfaction about work that they learned to do as children. Some adults never learn to like household tasks that they did not learn to do when young.

Children are more likely to like to do what they can do well. This makes it important for you parents to take time to teach your child how to do new tasks. Work really gives a child a feeling of usefulness and importance in the family group, when he can do it well and gets some recognition for his efforts.

Of course, as children get older they like to have some part in deciding the responsibilities of work in and around the house. They can be unhappy about work that they think is not fairly divided among members of the family. Family discussions in which all take part can keep down friction and help children see the "why" of what they do.

Are you a parent who thinks you are doing your children a favor by not having them do much work at home. Or are you one who thinks it takes much less time to do something yourself than to let Johnny or Mary do it? It may take more time, but remember, Johnny and Mary need the opportunity to develop worthy attitudes toward work and skill in doing it. Then when mastered these, they can help save time for Mom and Dad. And most important, they'll grow up much more able to earn their own living and be a better husband or wife.

CARE OF STAINLESS STEEL

Certain food as mustard, mayonnaise, lemon juice, salt or dressing containing these, will attack and corrode stainless steel containers of time. Remember, too, that even if left in it for long periods strong bleaches should not come in contact with stainless steel sinks and utensils for longer than 30 minutes.

DI DON'T PRICE THIS CAR BY ITS LOOKS

Valiant may look like it costs a lot. It doesn't. For a fact, the New York Couture Group (designers of very expensive clothes) gave Valiant their Design Supremacy Award. They think it's the best looking car in America. If this wins marbles with you, if you couldn't own one, consider the following: Valiant has room for a Valiant trunk and luggage space to match; an inclined engine that's very tight with its own oil; thank you, an alternator-generator (to boost the battery's life); a 100-hp. engine, a run-proof, rattle-proof body; and a light price. That's value.

Valiant has many other attractions too. For extra added attractions see the man who sells them.

Ramirez-Blanchard Wedding

MRS. DUFFELL, STEPHEN RAMIREZ —Fayard photo

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the wedding Saturday morning of Miss Ann Lucy Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seuzeneau, and Mr. Duffell Stephen Ramirez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Emile Ramirez, of New Orleans.

Rev. Father Adrian Mercier officiated at the 11 o'clock nuptial Mass and Professor Joseph Hemmingsbach played a program of nuptial music during the ceremony. Vases of white and pale pink gladioli decorated the altar and tall baskets of the blossoms were on either side.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a white organza street length gown, fashioned with full skirt and tucked bodice with a scalloped neckline of Alencon lace. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held in place by a small coronet of seed pearls and she carried white stephanotis and blush pink rose buds.

The attendants Miss Kathleen Joyce and Miss Peggy Kergosien, wore pale pink organza frocks made with full skirts. The fitted bodices featured round necklines and butterfly sleeves. They wore wreaths of stephanotis with a pink velvet bow in the back and carried cascade bouquets of white stephanotis.

Mr. David Viguier of New Orleans was best man, and Mr. John Merie of New Orleans was groomsmen. Albert Blanchard, brother of the bride, Emile Ramirez, brother of the groom and William Bernard served as ushers.

White and pink gladioli and magnolia leaves decorated the home of the bride for the reception which followed the ceremony.

The bride's table covered with a white cloth over pink was centered with a pale pink tiered wedding cake flanked by silver candelabra holding pink tapers.

Mrs. Blanchard received her guests wearing a beige organza dress, beige accessories and a corsage of white fleur d'amour.

Mrs. Ramirez chose a blue embroidered linen sheath, blue accessories and a fleur d'amour corsage.

For traveling the bride wore a white linen sheath, white accessories and a shoulder bouquet of red rose buds.

On their return from a wedding trip to the Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Ramirez will make their home in Lake Charles, La.

ing to a Hollywood which currently is cheering his performance as a temperamental music maestro. Lovely Kay Kendall co-stars with Brynner in the Columbia release at the Star Theatre, Sunday and Monday, July 10-11 in color by Technicolor. The beautiful actress appears as Brynner's equally temperamental wife, matching his flights of emotional fancy with some delightful pyrotechnics and madcap clowning uniquely her own.

Screenplay for "Once More, With Feeling" was penned by Harry Kurnitz from his own successful Broadway stage play, the happy comedy of musical genius whose egocentricities are kept in check by his wife... until she discovers him "auditioning" a sultry young pianist. She walks out on him, and his career promptly starts skidding.

In time, the maestro decides to forgive her, only to discover she now is in love with an atomic scientist and is determined to marry him once her divorce comes through.

Brides of Dracula At Legion Theatre Gulfport, Wednesday

When a movie fan thinks of a vampire, he usually thinks of Dracula. With thoughts of Dracula, the chances are that in his mind's eye he will visualize either Bela Lugosi or Christopher Lee.

Both achieved world fame thru their portrayals of sinister Count on the screen—Lugosi is Hollywood's 1930 version, and Lee in the 1959 production from England. Lugosi's Dracula had a squat and bloated look. Lee's was tall, aquiline and lean.

Now, in "Brides of Dracula," filmed in Technicolor, and set to open at the Legion Theatre, Wednesday, there's a completely new look vampire.

He is called Baron Meinster and he's a disciple of Dracula. He is played by David Peel—as a romantic ghoul with the airs and grace of a matinee idol. Fair-haired, blue-eyed, youthful, and devastatingly handsome, he is a teenager's delight.

Peel's Adonis-like exterior lies a mind and a heart hideously wicked, evil and dangerous—the mind and heart of a vicious vampire.

In "Brides of Dracula" filmed in Technicolor, David Peel appears, with a distinguished cast that includes Peter Cushing, Freda Jackson, Marita Hunt, Yvonne Mon-Laur and Miles Maleson.

The picture released by Universal International, is a Hammer production.

Set in 1924, the story concerns two young men of high intellect both law students at a midwestern university. At first they appear to be above average young students but it is soon evident that each suffers from a serious emotional disturbance. The latter leads them to plan and execute a senseless and brutal act, which the newspapers call "the crime of the century." Fast work by the state's attorney and the alertness of a young reporter brings forth a confession from the young criminals and the nation's foremost

"Compulsion" To Show At Star Theatre, Tues.-Wednesday, July 12-13

"Compulsion," Darryl F. Zanuck Productions' CinemaScope drama based on Meyer Levin's daringly realistic account of Chicago's infamous teen-age "thrill-killers" will open at the Star Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 12-13. Starring Orson Wells, Diane Varsi, Dean Stockwell and Bradford Dillman, "Compulsion" marks the film-making debut of its producer, Richard D. Zanuck, and was directed by Robert Fleischer.
